DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. The election of the species of Fig. 4 without traverse has been noted. Claims 31-41 are in the case. Claims 31, 33, 38 and 41 are examined. Claims 32, 34-37, 39, 40 are withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to a non-elected species. Should Applicant decide to pursue continuation of the prosecution of this case, he is required to: 1) submit a single listing of ALL the standing claims with appropriate status identifiers; 2) TO REFRAIN from mailing back to the USPTO Office Actions. All the Office Actions are on file.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected because the abstract of the disclosure does not commence on a separate sheet in accordance with 37 CFR 1.52(b)(4). A new abstract of the disclosure is required and must be presented on a separate sheet, apart from any other text.
3. The following text in the newly filed specification was denied entry because it introduces new matter: a) on p. 5, l. 5, "ten to 15 degrees"; b) on p. 6, the last sentence of the specification on lines 8-9. Should Applicant decide to pursue continuation of the prosecution of the case, he is required file a new substitute specification deleting said new matter.
4. The specification is objected because in the listing of the claims, after claim 41, the statement "Claims 42-48 are canceled" is missing. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claims 31, 33, 38 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the disclosed invention is inoperative and therefore lacks utility. Reference is made to the Examiner-marked Fig. 4, attached to this Office Action. Bearings B1 and B2 are stationary on pole P1P2 consisting of portions P1 and P2. Turbine 108 is rigidly connected through arm A to power shaft 118 that is rigidly attached to P2. Therefore, turbine 108 and its power shaft 118 cannot rotate around the axis/centerline CL (the rotation radius being the distance between CL and shaft 118) because bearing B2 and pole P1P2 won't allow them to do so.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

8. Claims 31, 33, 38 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention, as explained in the rejection under 35USC 101 above. In particular the critical extraction of power through power shaft 118 is not enabled.

9. As explained in the rejections above, the invention as disclosed is not operational. However, to the extent that the specification could be understood, a search has been carried out, and the following rejection is made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 31, 33, 38, 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chamis 6393831 that teaches the invention as claimed: a gas turbine comprising a rotating pressure vessel 12, an axial compressor 18, a combustor 54 with obvious means to supply fuel, mix and burn said fuel with air, nozzles stages (un-numbered) in-between consecutive impulse-turbine stages 14 that are axially positioned relative to said nozzles. Note that the nozzle vanes and the turbine blades look identical in Fig. 1, in spite of the fact that the nozzles are stationary and the blades are rotary. However, Chamis does not teach a centrifugal compressor. Official Notice is taken that at the time of the claimed invention centrifugal compressors and axial compressors were known to be art-equivalent, and that replacing the one with the other would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 3746

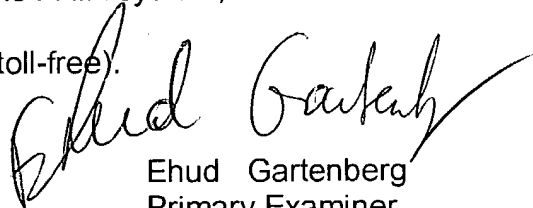

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
